

WAYNE ELDERTON

Wayne has successfully consulted with numerous facilities and coaches world-wide to provide practical tools and materials. Recipients have found these very useful in improving their programs and coaching.

Consulting areas include:

- Assistance with designing program pathways for adults and juniors to increase retention, maximize participant improvement, and grow programs
- Assistance in implementing Game-based coaching
- Assistance in training and coach education to improve the coaching effectiveness of individual, or a staff, of coaches
- Assistance in building coaching teams
- Assistance in programming and planning recreational, development, and High Performance programs for Red/Orange/Green 10U to adult players